AMPHIBIOUS CROCS

When CROCS first appeared on the scene, it quickly became not just a fashion statement. It became the epitome of comfort for shoes — loved by all. With Hydro™, the makers of the cheery boat shoes is bound to get water babies in a tizzy. Lightweight and equipped with the trademark holes that drain water easily, the shoes now come with stretchable drawstring topline. Keeping the shoes secure on your feet, even when underwater, Hydro™ is suitable for watersports like canoeing, boating, fishing and sailing and underwater sports.
