

CORPORATE COUNSEL, ASIA

Job Responsibilities

- Provide advice on general legal function matters including corporate governance, leasing, social media, digital platforms, commercial contracts and agreements, employment and product liability in a diverse, regional role
- Draft, review and negotiate a wide range of legal, commercial and corporate documents and contracts
- Review and advise on the company's rights and liabilities under existing commercial and corporate agreements
- Conduct and coordinate research into a variety of legal issues
- Liaise with external legal counsels on litigation matters
- Perform internal compliance work related to safety, SOX reporting
- Advise management on statutory/regulatory issues with potential commercial and legal implications
- Provide value-added legal advice to help manage and mitigate the risk and liability of the Asia region

Job Requirements

- Bachelor of Law Degree with at least 5-8 years PQE experience in a law firm and/or as an in-house counsel for an MNC
- Good knowledge and experience in commercial law and contract negotiations
- Commercially-savvy and have a practical approach to the practice of law
- Must be able to think creatively and provide solutions to problems as they are encountered
- Self-starter and able to work independently
- Good written and spoken English
- Good team player and ability to work with senior management team as well as peers
- Well-versed with contract law in major Asian countries an advantage
- Strong analytical, communication and drafting skills, an eye for detail
- Prepared to travel at short notice around the region